REPUBLICANS ARE CERTAIN.

The pending contest for the Republican nomination for the Presidency is the hottest ever known. The President has been saying quite a lot of rather ugly things about Col. Theo-odore Roosevelt and in turn the Colonel has been saying a lot of rather uncomplimentary things about the President. Both the Presidential candidates seem to be firm in the conviction that the Republican nominee will be elected largely because the Democrats in Congress, for a year or more on trial have not made good and the country is not disposed to trust them with the executive branch of the government.

The belief is growing that W. J.
Bryan has so manipulated conditions
as to be the Democratic candidate for the Presidency himself. The several other Democratic candidates for the honor have been dividing up the territory with no prospect of any one of them getting the necessary two-thirds of the elected delegates necessary to nominate. It is generally believed that after all of them have measured their strength Mr. Bryan will control the Democratic national convention in his own favor.

In the meantime the regular Republicans in Pennsylvania are heartened by a ticket nominated recently and the indications are that the party will be united in support of all the State candidates as well as the Presidential candidate wherever he may be.

THE LOGICAL CANDIDATE.

Concerning the candidacy of W. H.
Berry the Democratic candidate for State Treasurer, the Connellsville
Courier says:

"The Honorable William Honeysuckle Berry will receive the Keystone party nomination for State Treasurer and in the optimistic opinion of some enthusiastic Democrats this insures his election."

"Candidate Berry was nominated
them out and care for them. You'd be not because the Democrats loved him, but because they thought he could be elected with the aid of votes outside the party. Not only will he fail to get the outside votes, but he will lose the votes of a portion of the Democratic party which has no sympathy with his attitude on certain questions affecting their personal interests.

"Candidate Berry is perhaps not as powerful in politics as he was when he made his first and successful run as a State candidate. Like some other aspirants, the longer he stays in the game, and the more people find out about him, the weaker he gets.

"The Logical Candidate is not necessarily the successful candidate."

ELECTRIC SPARKS

A circus on Saturday, automobile riding on Sunday and out of the city on Monday gives one a feeling of luxuriousness that is only to be ascertained otherwise by wealth.

It seems there are too many dream-lands today for the common good.

Nobody knows how much fun it really is to work eight days a week 24 hours to each day until they have really tried it.

It is said that one of those Virginia murderers will have to die. Reasoning that they didn't have much use for the life of anybody else, they shouldn't care much for their own to be consistent.

Somebody remarks that Champ Clark's first name is Beauchamp instead of plain Champ. One wonders if the Beau part of it will figure as a hoodoo.

The average man is always ready to compromise when he is getting the worst of it, but never while he is winning.

It is impossible to say if it is the desire for notoriety that is the actuating motive, but there seems to be a big number of pretty girls meeting mysterious deaths these days.

An exchange remarks that Thursday was Ascension day, but the mercury had to wait a few days to take the hint.

If Taft with his golf club and Roosevelt with his big stick would try to "whip each other down" in mortal combat, there are still those who would enjoy it.

When the Team Comes Home.

The grandmothers are dying fast,
The aunts and uncles too;
The epidemic's going to last
The entire summer through.

The bookkeeper gets powerful sick
Most every afternoon,
The office boy is mighty quick
To pipe the same old tune.

The ribbon clerk abruptly jumps
The job at 3 p.m.
He says his kids have got the mumps
And he must go to them.

The easy and kindhearted boss
At first is left in doubt;
And finds that he is at a loss
To figure the thing out.

He can't see why they all must go
In illness and in pain
You see, as yet he doesn't know
The team is home again.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

Happening to be in Pittsburgh Monday evening the writer dropped into the den of Erasmus Wilson, the "Quiet Observer" of the Gazette Times. Mr. Wilson, who has lectured twice in Charleroi and has a host of friends here who read his "Observations," in the Gazette Times every day, was up to his eyes in work, but he stopped a minute to talk about a hobby of his which he follows up for recreation, when he can get a few minutes now and then from his routine of duties. This is the preservation of the birds—our native birds of Pennsylvania.

"I think I've hit the right track along this line," said Mr. Wilson,
"and that is to get the boys interested in the work of saving and caring for the birds. I have gotten my good friend John Reed interested and he this year got 500 bird boxes made, which were given out to the boys of the Crafton schools who applied for them with the endorsement of their parents. There was such a call for these that Mr. Reed went further in the matter, and ordered 500 tree, part of them sweet cherry, and part Russian mulberry to furnish feed for the birds. These were also given to the boys, with instructions how to set them out and care for them. You'd be surprised how much interest the boys are taking in the matter, especially as they have the responsibility of putting up the boxes and planting and caring for the trees.

"Give the boys something to do themselves along this line or any other in which you desire to get them interested, and they'll become enthusiastic at once."

A visiting drummer tells how he was at a show in one of the eastern cities recently, when he noticed an usher nearby who approached a man who appeared to be annoying those about him.

"Don't you like the show?" asked the usher.

"Yes, indeed!" exclaimed the man.

"Then why do you persist in hissing
the performers?"

"Why man alive, I w-wasn't hissing. I w-was s-simply s-s-saying to S-s-sammie that the s-s-s-singing is s-s-suberb!"

Feats in Climbing.

Not only have some of the peaks near Pontresina been ascended this winter, but also some of the highest mountains in Switzerland, including the Jungfrau. Feats in winter climbing are now often performed which a few years ago would have been considered impossible.

ed a telephone system for the benefit of members of the church who may be afflicted with deafness. Six tele-rectly in front of the speaker.

New Tuberculosis Remedy Based on Medicine

To say that a specific exists for the cure of Consumption is perhaps too strong a statement, but in Eckman's Alternative we have a medicine that has been the means of saving many a life to years of infirmities, and in permanently curing a large number of Consumption cases. Certainly a person afflicted with a wasting disease should be well fed with wholesome, nourishing food, but frequently raw eggs in quantities cause a digestive breakdown, and then no food remains. As for milk, a very good food for many, but a producer of biliousness for some.

Any diet that keeps a Consumptive well nourished is the right one, but what is going to cure the patient? Eckman's Alternative has cured and is curing many cases of Consumption. Let us speak who know. Here is a specimen:

90 Savannah St., Rochester, N. Y.

"Gentlemen: On June 3, 1907, I was operated upon for Tubercular peritonitis, at St. Mary's Hospital, Rochester, N. Y. After the operation my physician gave me up hopeless. I was then urged by a priest to take Eckman's Alternative, which I did. My weight at the time was 72 lbs. I began to improve and steadily gained in health and strength. I now weigh 125 lbs., and am absolutely cured. I believe in this statement.

(Signed) Alfordavit" EDNA FINZER.

Eckman's Alternative is effective in Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever, Throat and Lung Troubles, and in upholding the system. It cures certain poisons, stimulates the body, softening drugs, and in fact cures cases of cured cases, and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for more evidence. BABY SAVING SHOW

A PRACTICAL DEMONSTRATION

THE TASTE OF DEATH

HUNTING THE TROUBLE

One baby in every seven dies the first year after birth! Your baby, perhaps, anybody's baby, possibly, 28,733 babies that belonged to somebody last year in Pennsylvania. That is the question on every mother's lips, when she is brought to understand that the shadow of death may fall across her baby's crib.

To answer this insistant Why, the Baby Saving Show in Philadelphia, which opened Monday has been planned. It is estimated that fifty per cent of the infant deaths are due to conditions within human control. To show what these are and how they can be remedied, so clearly that every mother may see is the purpose of the exhibit.

Everything possible has been done to make it practical in order that mothers of every nationality and grade of intelligence may be reached. In order to do this many models have been prepared. One room for instance has been set aside as the "bad room", where everything that is bad for the baby and detrimental to its welfare is shown. This exhibit is set apart various brands of soothing syrups from the others that there may be no confusion in the minds of the visitors.

One of the models in the "bad room" is a crying baby lying in its crib, being devoured by flies. This also shows the interior of a home in which disorder and dirt are rampant. Another model shows a baby chewing a pacifier, which doctors and nurses maintain is unhygienic. One little unfortunate is shown with a dirty milk bottle. The dangerous and improper food which some infants are given by ignorant parents is shown; pickles, cinnamon buns, corn on the cob, coffee, tea, candy died with camphor and made of coal tar.

The soothing syrup habit is exposed in another booth, and those who see it will realize that the thoughtless mother who makes use of those deleterious mixtures of drugs and alcohol is running the chance of making her child a drug or dope fiend and seriously jeopardizes its chances of living. In this exhibit the feared the unsuspecting mother are shown in their original packages and their actual contents made clear.

The evils of overdosing the little one in summer is explained by the picture of a miserable infant swathed in flannel and gasping for water and fresh air.

There is a special display to impress parents with the importance of the care of the baby's eyes at birth. The dangerous toys and playthings which are often the causes of blindness are here shown. It is estimated that 40,000 of the 100,000 blind persons in the United States might have been saved had proper precautions been taken during infancy. Every effort will be made to impress on mothers and nurses the necessity for attending to the babies eyes at birth. Then by a simple process which requires less than a minute a child's eyesight may be saved. This process which consists of dropping a solution of nitrate of silver into the infants eyes and washing it out with clear water will be described in this booth on blindness.

The State Department of Health has an interesting exhibit containing twenty-one sections devoted to the causes of deaths of children under two years of age, to a diagnosis of conditions which lead to these causes and to the final summing up and the remedial measures to be taken up by the authorities and the individual in bringing about a decrease in infant mortality.

There are charts analyzing the deaths of infants from the principal causes by days for the first week, by weeks for the first month, and months for the first year. "The Curve of Death From Infancy to Old Age" is an interesting study of the age periods where death is more likely to make its attack. This chart demonstrates that a man at eighty-four has a better chance of living a week than an infant at birth.

This Baby Show is free and it is expected that 200,000 people will visit Horticultural Hall during the eight days that it will be open. It is the intention of Dr. Dixon, Commissioner of Health to send the State's portion of the exhibit on a tour after the close.

Where Wesley Wrote Hymns.
The Rev. J. H. Wicksteed, vicar of Bexley, Kent, England, has presented to the Wesleyan Methodists of Gravesend and Dartford circuit a tree from the vicarage garden, a sapling of the old oak under whose branches John and Charles Wesley, with George Whitefield, often met in friendly conference.

It is believed that Charles Wesley composed some of his hymns under its shadow, and John, in his diary of September 22, 1740, writes: "I went to Mr. Piers, the vicar of Bexley, where in the mornings and evenings I expounded the sermon on the mount and had leisure during the rest of the day for business of other kinds." He was there again Saturday, December 8, 1749, "and preached about 11."

THREE YEARS OF MISERY

Mrs. Burnside Escaped an Operation by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mahoningtown, Pa.—"For three years I suffered untold misery every month,

What long nerve-racking days of constant torture—what sleepless nights of terrible agony—itch—itch—itch—constant itch, until it seemed that I must tear off my very skin—then—constant relief—my skin cooled, soothed and healed!"

"The very first drops of D.D.D. Prescription for Eczema stopped that awful itch instantly; yes, the very moment D.D.D. touched the burning skin the torture ceased. A 25c bottle proves it. D.D.D. has been known for years as the only absolutely reliable eczema remedy, for it always stays the disease germs and leaves the skin as clear and healthy as that of a child."

"All other druggists have D.D.D. Prescription—go to them if you can't come to us—but don't accept some big profit substitute."

"But when you come to our store, we are so certain of what D.D.D. will do for you that we offer you a full size bottle on this guarantee—if you do not find that it takes away the itch AT ONCE, it costs you not a cent."

Braces and Hair.
A very momentous question has arisen: Does a woman's hair reduce her brain power? Experts are busy disagreeing on the point, which is, of course, the particular function of experts. The principal of a girl's school says that in every case where the younger girls have had their hair cut short their brains have been rendered more capable of sustained effort. A doctor and a schoolmaster, however, accept the idea, perhaps because they have never had upon the tops of their heads a heat generating mass of hair, intersected with metal instruments and shell combs. Every woman knows the hot throbbing, distinct from headache, which goes on under the mass of her hair, wherever it is placed, while schoolgirls have either a heavy plait, involving some strain from the top of the scalp, or a wide spreading mass of hair, which is equally hot. We may yet come to a day when small girls will have short hair, just as they wear knickerbocker suits to play in.

Cabinet to Meet.

Defies Passing of Years.

Dr. D. D. Martin of Tulsa, Okla., is the oldest practicing surgeon in the United States. He is 89 years old. At the clinical convention of North American surgeons in Chicago, recently, Dr. Martin performed an operation which showed his colleagues that his skill and judgment had been in no way impaired by age.

Delicately Expressed.

"It is not always necessary to make a direct accusation," said the lawyer who was asking damages because insinuations had been made against his client's good name. "You may have heard of the woman who called to the servant girl, 'Mary, Mary, come here and take the parrot downstairs—the master has dropped his collar stud.'—Tit-Bits."

BIG CROWD LISTENS TO CALLAGHANS ORATORY

If any man doubts it let him come forth and I will produce the proof in black and white. These other candidates represent only the special interests of the country and they are so drunk with riotous living that they have forgotten the words of that memorable victor at the battle of New Orleans, Gen. Jackson, "Equality before the law and special privilege to none." These men, Wilson, Clark, Harmon, Underwood and all the rest will be rated in history with the other traitors to Democracy, Cleveland, Carlisle and Buckner.

"I want to say something concerning the conspiracy against me by certain Democrats and others. I have this day signed the docket in the court house and fixed matters up straight for I want to be on friendly terms with all. I have received my costs from the clerk of the courts and the ledger is now wiped clean. But the dastardly and treacherous conspiracy which robbed me of the Democratic nomination last November for sheriff is a long step towards the destruction of the bulwark of American liberties and freedom. I came here tonight bearding the very conspirators in their own den, as it were. I defy a single man to point to any spot upon my record. But look at the damning record of these men who fled from me the Democratic nomination. They are not citizens but are slaves of the system. I am a representative of the party but they are not Democrats at heart.

"I believe in the initiative, referendum and the recall and I believe it would be a good thing to recall Senator Flinn. I challenged Flinn and made an appointment in Pittsburg to meet the senator, but he failed to keep his appointment. Flinn is a boss of the same type as the others and I do not believe that the Republican party has made much change.

Stating that he was capable of filling the office of the Presidency Mr.

"I want to say to you that if I am elected president of these United States and right here men let me tell you that I am confident that I will be the nominee of the Democratic party at Baltimore, Acheson, Brownlee and Judson will have to run the gauntlet and stand the test.

Callaghan closed by eulogizing William Jennings Bryan. He declared that he would put Thomas Jefferson on the scaffold and Benedict Arnold in the temple of fame rather than surrender one iota of the principles which carried Bryan to honorable defeat.

TO OBSERVE MEMORIAL DAY WITH DEDICATION

Elaborate Playgrounds Opening Program Being Arranged

CARR CHIEF SPEAKER

Uniontown Attorney Promises to Come--Two Instructors Elected

Although not the home of many old soldiers Charleroi will nevertheless be made the center of a somewhat elaborate Memorial Day celebration which will consist of the usual parade—not of old soldiers but of school children—and oratory, together with other features that are more or less common to the customary observance of the day. The occasion will be the dedication of the playgrounds for the 1912 season, for which event the Playgrounds Association is now making final preparations.

Heading the array of speaking talent will be Woods N. Carr, Esq., of Uniontown, one of the best known Memorial Day speakers in this part of the country. He will make a Memorial address at Brownsville in the afternoon and one here for the evening celebration. Others who have been secured thus far to make addresses are Guy Moffitt, Esq., of Charleroi, Rev. E. N. Duty, pastor of the Christian church and Rev. Matthew F. Kebe, pastor of the Slavish Catholic church.

Speaking which will take place at the playgrounds in "The Pines" will be preceded by a parade starting at 6 o'clock. School children carrying flags will parade and the Charleroi Brigade under the captaincy of R. Dale Jolliffe and Washington Avenue Presbyterian Bay's Brigade will be in line, as will borough authorities and members of the Charleroi Business Men's Association. The Belle Vernon Drum corps of 15 pieces has been engaged to lead the parade. Speakers and the borough authorities will be conveyed in automobiles.

Two teachers have been employed by the Playgrounds Association for the season, R. Dale Jolliffe for the boys' work and Miss Nellie Ryland for the girls' work. William Evans will be caretaker. New swings are being located.

One feature this year will be that of a swimming pool. The Turn Verein club has donated the use of their swimming pool to the playgrounds association and it will be used for the children throughout the season.

Another feature will be the maintaining of a flower garden. Each child will be asked to bring a flower or a shrub which he will be shown how to plant and take care of.

Donations have been coming in for the playgrounds the latest having been as follows: Eagles club $25 Royal Arcanum $10, C. M. B. A., $10, Bartenders club $25, Red Men, $15. The lodges are contributing very liberally towards the fund to be used for the upkeep of the playgrounds.

L. C. B. A. Euchre.

Progressive Euchre Wednesday evening, May 22 at the home of Mrs. Jas. O'Herron, 811 McLean avenue, between Eighth and Ninth streets at 8 o'clock. Admission 25¢.

Monongahela Minister Scores Promoters of Sports That Desecrate Sabbath

The people of Monongahela are discussing with considerable interest some of the remarks made by the Rev. W. F. McKee Sunday in his sermon to his congregation in the First Presbyterian church. In the course of his remarks Mr. McKee said there was more Sabbath desecration to the square foot in Monongahela than in any town in which he had ever lived. He went after Sunday baseball without gloves and insisted that Doneora was the only town in the State where this thing was permitted. He said the county authorities should look into the matter and put a stop to this evil.

Mrs. Waters was last seen on Sunday, when she was up and around seemingly as well as usual. For some time, however, she had been complaining of indigestion and heart trouble. She failed to appear on Monday morning. Neighbors did not pay much attention until late in the evening, when through anxiety for fear of some catastrophe they went to the door and knocked. Getting no answer they pushed in the door, and found the woman reclining on the bed as though sleeping. Her body was cold, indicating that she had probably died Sunday night.

CUT MADE ON BUTTER

Creamery Dropped Three Cents Per Pound by Elgin Board

TO STIMULATE TRADE

With the idea it is stated of putting "snap into the markets" where it has been sadly wanting the Elgin butter board at Pittsburg Monday reduced the price of creamery butter 3 cents a pound and it is said local dealers have made a similar cut. It is expected that the reduction will bring consumers into line who have not been using much butter. The retail price on creamery butter will now range from 29 or 30 cents to 35 and possibly 38 cents per pound. The largest bulk of butter however, will sell probably at about 32 cents.

Candidate Talks of System of Presidential Preference

REFERS TO CARNEGIE

Says Steel Master Has Many Pensioned Slaves Final Test for Keystone

Dissatisfied by the failure of former Senator William Flinn to keep an engagement in Pittsburgh Monday, to agree for a joint political debate, Hon. Edward Callaghan, of Charleroi, Democrat, candidate for President of the United States journeyed on to the county seat of Washington, where he made a public address in the evening in the interests of his campaign, in addition to transacting some business. According to the Washington Record Mr. Callaghan was in Washington to secure his costs in the now famous conspiracy suit. It will be recalled that he put in a bill for $37,000 and more in the shape of emoluments of office, time and prestige. He compromised with Clark W. S. Lockhart Monday by accepting the doctor amount of $1,800 and waived all claim to any other monies. Of course the suit still pends before congress but this is only to test the case of treason.

In an interview Mr. Callaghan stated that he has Bryan bottled up at that he will have his own way at the Baltimore convention. He believes that Taft and Roosevelt are doing the Brutus and Caesar act and at Chicago Roosevelt will play the dagger that will send Taft to his political doom.

In his speech, which was delivered in the open on the street corner, after stating that he visited the burgess to arrange for the meeting in order to show his respect for the local government, Mr. Callaghan said:

"Go into your market places, upon your street corners and note the great unrest. Everywhere you can hear the curses against the officials in high places. Whose fault is it? Is it not your own? Give me the honest citizen and let me duplicate him into the masses and I will produce the finest form of self-government in the world. With all the complaint that is going up over the country as to the President and the members of congress it is refreshing to note the pride and self-confidence you have in your burgess and local officials.

"Every American voter is responsible for the kind of government he enjoys. I say to you men cast ballots in the interest of good government. Over in Allegheny county recently we witnessed a political fight in the interests of Roosevelt, which cost $100,000 or about $15 per vote. The man who will go forth and cast his ballot as a free man in a tribute to American citizenship. I hope here tonight to talk as a representative of the great Democratic party. It is in a deplorable condition but it is not one-half as bad as the Republican party. The spirit of Gen. Jackson still animates it and makes it strong and virile. I am the one man who represents the people while all the other Democratic candidates are being groomed by the special interest. I have the documentary evidence and

ASTRONOMICAL EVENTS.

(From noon today to noon tomorrow) Sun sets 7:15, rises 4:37. Evening Star: Mars. Morning Stars: Venus, Jupiter, Mercury, Saturn.

REPUBLICANS ARE CERTAIN.

The pending contest for the Republican nomination for the Presidency is the hottest ever known. The President has been saying quite a lot of rather ugly things about Col. Theodore Roosevelt; and in turn the Col. once has been saying a lot of rather uncomplimentary things about the President. Both the Presidential candidates seem to be firm in the conviction that the Republican nominee will be elected largely because the Democrats in Congress, for a year or more on trial have not made good and the country is not disposed to trust them with the executive branch of the government.

The belief is growing that W. J. Bryan has so manipulated conditions as to be the Democratic candidate for the Presidency himself. The several other Democratic candidates for the honor have been dividing up the territory with no prospect of any one of them getting the necessary two-thirds of the elected delegates necessary to nominate. It is generally believed that after all of them have measured their strength Mr. Bryan will control the Democratic national convention in his own favor.

In the meantime the regular Republicans in Pennsylvania are heartened by the ticket it rallied recently and the indications are that the party will rally in support of all the State candidates as well as the Presidential candidate whoever he may be.

THE LOGICAL CANDIDATE.

Concerning the candidacy of W. H. Berry, the Democratic nominee for State Treasurer, the Connellsville Courier says:

"The Honorable W. H. Berry will receive the Keystone party nomination for State Treasurer and in the optimistic opinion of some enthusiastic Democrats this insures his election."

"Candidate Berry was nominated them out and care for them. You'd be not because the Democrats loved him, but because they thought he could be elected with the aid of votes outside the party. Not only will he fail to get the outside votes, but he will lose the votes of a portion of the Democratic party which has no sympathy with his attitude on certain questions affecting their personal interests."

"Candidate Berry is perhaps not as powerful in politics as he was when he made his first and successful run as a State candidate. Like some other aspirants, the longer he stays in the game, and the more people find out about him, the weaker he gets."

"The Logical Candidate is not necessarily the successful candidate."

ELECTRIC SPARKS

A circus on Saturday, automobile riding on Sunday and out of the city on Monday gives one a feeling of luxuriance that is only to be ascertained otherwise by wealth.

I seem there are too many dreamlands today for the common good.

Nobody knows how much fun it really is to work eight days a week, 24 hours to each day until they have really tried it.

It is said that one of those Virginia murderers will have to die reasoning that they didn't have much use for the life of anybody else. They shouldn't care much for their own to be consistent.

Somebody remarks that Champ Clark's first name is Beauchamp instead of plain Champ. One wonders if the Beau part of it will figure as a hoodie.

The average man is always ready to compromise when he is getting the worst of it, but never while he is winning.

It is impossible to say if it is the desire for notoriety that is the activating motive, but there seems to be a big number of pretty girls meeting mysterious deaths these days.

An exchange remarks that Thursday was Ascension day, but the mercury had to wait a few days to take the hint.

If Taft with his golf club and Roosevelt with his big stick would try to "whip each other down" in mortal combat, there are still those who would enjoy it.

When the Team Comes Home.

The grandmothers are dying fast, The aunts and uncles too; The epidemic's going to last The entire summer through.

The bookkeeper gets powerful sick Most every afternoon, The office boy is mighty quick To pipe the same old tune.

The ribbon clerk abruptly jumps The job at 3 p. m. He says his kids have got the mumps And he must go to them.

The easy and kindhearted boss At first is left in doubt; And finds that he is at a loss To figure the thing out.

He can't see why they all must go In illness and in pain You see, as yet he doesn't know The team is home again.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

Happening to be in Pittsburg Monday evening the writer dropped into the den of Erasmus Wilson, the "Quiet Observer" of the Gazette Times. Mr. Wilson, who has lectured twice in Charleroi and has a host of friends here who read his "Observations," in the Gazette Times every day, was up to his eyes in work, but he stopped a minute to talk about a hobby of his which he follows up for recreation, when he can get a few minutes now and then from his routine of duties. This is the preservation of the birds—our native birds of Pennsylvania.

"I think I've hit the right track along this line," said Mr. Wilson, "and that is to set the boys interested in the work of saving and caring for the birds. I have gotten my good friend John Reed interested and he this year got 500 bird boxes made, which were given out to the boys of the Crafton schools who applied for them with the endorsement of their parents. There was such a call for the matter, and ordered 500 trees, part of them sweet cherry, and part Russian mulberry to furnish feed for the birds. These were also given to the boys, with instructions how to set them out and care for them. You'd be

New Tuberculosis Remedy Based on Medicine

To say that a specific exists for the cure of Consumption is perhaps too strong a statement, but in Eckman's Alternative we have a medicine that has been the means of saving many a life to years of usefulness, and in permanently curing a large number of Consumptives.

Certainly a person afflicted with a wasting disease should be well fed with wholesome, nourishing food, be frequently raw vegetables in quantities causing a digestive breakdown, and then no food nourishes. As for milk, a very good food for some, but a producer of mucus for others.

Any diet that keeps a Consumptive well nourished is the right one, but what is going to cure the patient?—Eckman's Alternative has cured and is curing many a case of Consumption. Let those who know who know. Here is a specimen:

99 Savannah St. Rochester, N. Y. "Gentlemen: On June 3, 1907, I was operated upon for Tubercular peritonitis, at St. Mary's Hospital, Rochester, N. Y. After the operation my physician gave me up as hopeless; was urged by a priest to take Eckman's Alternative, which I did. My weight at the time was 72 lbs. I began to improve and steadily gained in health and strength. I now weigh 125 lbs. and am absolutely cured. Believing I owe it to myself and others I make this statement."

(Signed Alford) EDNA FINZER.

Eckman's Alternative is effective in Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever, Catarrhal and Lung Troubles, and in tuberculosis the system does not contain poisons, opiates or habit-forming drugs. BABY SAVING SHOW

THE TASTE OF DEATH

HUNTING THE TROUBLE

One baby in every seven dies the first year after birth! Your baby, perhaps, anybody's baby possibly, 28,733 babies that belonged to somebody last year in Pennsylvania. That is the question on evry mother's lips when she is brought to understand that the shadow of death may fall across her baby's crib.

To answer this insistant Why, the Baby Saving Show in Philadelphia, which opened Monday has been planned. It is estimated that fifty per cent of the infant deaths are due to conditions within human control. To show what these are and how they can be remedied, so clearly that every mother may see is the purpose of the exhibit.

Everything possible has been done to make it practical in order that mothers of every nationality and grade of intelligence may be reached. In order to do this many models have been prepared. One room for instance has been set aside as the "bad room", where everything that is bad for the baby and detrimental to its welfare is shown. This exhibit is set apart various brands of soothing syrups offered the unsuspecting mother are from the others that there may be no confusion in the minds of the visitors.

One of the models in the "bad room" is a crying baby lying in its crib, being devoured by flies. This also shows the interior of a home in which

disorder and dirt are rampant. Another model shows a baby chewing a pacifier, which doctors and nurses maintain is unhygienic. One little unfortunate is shown with a dirty milk bottle. The dangerous and improper food which some infants are given by ignorant parents is shown; pickles, cinnamon buns, corn on the cob; coffee, tea, candy died with carmine and made of coal tar.

The soothing syrup habit is exposed in another booth, and those who see it will realize that the thoughtless mother who makes use of those deleterious mixtures of drugs and alcohol is running the chance of making her child a drug or dope fiend and seriously jeopardizes its chances of living. In this exhibit the

State Department of Health has an interesting exhibit containing twenty-one sections devoted to the causes of deaths of children under two years of age, to a diagnosis of conditions which lead to these causes and to the final summing up and the remedial measures to be taken up by the authorities and the individual in bringing about a decrease in infant mortality. There are charts analyzing the deaths of infants from the principal causes by days for the first week, by weeks for the first month, and months for the first year. "The Curve of Death From Infancy to Old Age" is an interesting study of the age periods where death is more likely to make it's attack. This chart demonstrates that a man at eighty-four has a better chance of living a week than an infant at birth.

This Baby Show is free and it is expected that 200,000 people will visit Horticultural Hall during the eight days that it will be open. It is the intention of Dr. Dixon, Commissioner of Health to send the State's portion of the exhibit on a tour after the close.

Where Wesley Wrote Hymns. The Rev. J. H. Wicksteed, vicar of Bexley, Kent, England, has presented to the Wesleyan Methodists of Gravesend and Dartford circuit a tree from the vicarage garden, a sapling of the old oak under whose branches John and Charles Wesley, with George Whitefield, often met in friendly conference.

It is believed that Charles Wesley composed some of his hymns under its shadow, and John, in his diary of September 22, 1740, writes: "I went to Mr. Piers, the vicar of Bexley, where in the mornings and evenings I expounded the sermon on the mount and had leisure during the rest of the day for business of other kinds." He was there again Saturday, December 2, 1749, "and preached about 11."

An Ancient Custom. One penny was placed on the altar at St. Cuthbert's church, York, the other day, in accordance with the ancient custom instituted in memory of Sir Martyn Bowes, a benefactor.

Great Solvers of Problems. Two hours of honest, quiet solitude and silence will shovel several barrels full of mental and moral garbage out of you. And nothing else will do this so well.

Coffee Trees in Liberia. The Liberia coffee trees attain a height of more than 20 feet. The price of the product is eight and nine cents a pound at the plantation.

THREE YEARS OF MISERY

Oh, How I wished!

Mrs. Burnside Escaped an Operation by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mahoningtown, Pa.—"For three years I suffered untold misery every month, and had to stay in bed the first two or three days. I also had a displacement and other ailments peculiar to women. I became so weak and run down I could scarcely walk across the floor.

"The doctor told me I would never be well unless I would undergo an operation, but I was advised by my mother to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and after I had taken four bottles I am strong and well. I have got others to take your medicine with the same good results and they can not say enough for it." —Mrs. J. A. BURNSIDE, Mahoningtown, Pa.

What long nerve-racking days of constant torture—what sleepless nights of terrible agony—itch—itch—itch—constant itch, until it seemed that I must scratch my very skin—then—and healed!

The very first drops of D.D.D. Prescription for Eczema stopped that awful itch instantly; yes, the very moment D.D.D. touched the burning skin the torture ceased. A 25c bottle proves it.

D.D.D. has been known for years as the only absolutely reliable eczema remedy, for it washes away the disease germs and leaves the skin as clear and healthy as that of a child.

All other drugs in the market do not compare to us—but don't accept some big profit substitute.

But if you come to our store, we are so certain of what D.D.D. will do for you that we offer you a full size bottle on this guarantee:—If you do not find that it takes away the itch AT ONCE it costs you not a cent.

When Well-Known Charleroi People Tell It So Plainly.

When public endorsement is made by a representative citizen of Charleroi the proof is positive. You must believe it. Read this testimony. Every backache sufferer, every man, woman or child with any kidney trouble will find profit in the reading.

Mrs. William Stopp, 214 Second St. Charleroi, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills off and on for five years and consider them unequalled for kidney disease. I suffered for some time from backache and was also subject to headache and dizzy spells. Doan's Kidney Pills were finally brought to my attention and procuring a box at Piper Bros' Drug Store, I began their use. They benefited me greatly and I have since kept a supply on hand."

If any man doubts it let him come forth and I will produce the proof in black and white. These other candidates represent only the special interests of the country and they are so drunk with riotous living that they have forgotten the words of that memorable victor at the battle of New Orleans, Gen. Jackson; "Equal rights before the law and special privilege to none." These men, Wilson, Clark, Harmon, Underwood and all the rest will be rated in history with the other traitors to Democracy, Cleveland, Carlisle and Buckner.

"Andrew Carnegie has more than 3,000 pensioned slaves. Why does he have these pensioned slaves? Because he wants the magazines of the country to carry the information of vested interests. The people get drunk, as it were, from the knowledge gleaned from these magazines. They experience a damnable misery while drunk and feel good afterwards because they experience much change."

The Brooks high license law is a good one for I helped to draft the act and voted for it when a member of the legislature. I do not favor license but license is better than this damnable dope dealt out by the towns which have a dozen drug stores in every square. I believe in equality before the law. Grant was a great general and a believer in equality before the law. Compare him with Roosevelt who would make a damnable comparison indeed. Roosevelt in his campaign is coming to the rattle. He is a traitor like Brutus and a tyrant. I say that he is a traitor to the most solemn pact that man can make to man.

"I believe in the initiative, referendum and the recall and I believe it would be a good thing to recall Senator Flinn. I challenged Flinn and made an appointment in Pittsburgh to meet the senator, but he failed to keep his appointment. Flinn is a boss of the same type as the others and I do not believe that the Republican party has made much change."

Stating that he was capable of filling the office of the Presidency Mr.

"I want to say to you that if I am elected president of these United States and right here man let me tell you that I am confident that I will be the nominee of the Democratic party at Baltimore, Acheson, Brownlee and Judson will have to run the gauntlet and stand the test."

Callaghan closed by eulogizing William Jennings Bryan. He declared that he would put Thomas Jefferson on the scaffold and Benedict Arnold in the temple of fame rather than surrender one iota of the principles which carried Bryan to honorable defeat.

It is easy enough to pick out a stylish shoe in a window but how often have you done this and found the style would not fit you?

If you thought about fit alone it would be a simple matter to buy shoes, or if all you had to worry about was good leather.

A combination of style, fit and quality is what goes to make up shoe satisfaction.

This is doubly hard to find in summer shoes, but we are waiting to show you how easily we can give you such satisfaction at our store. You will find a wide assortment of styles, leathers and prices, standard brands to back our judgment.

Ladies' Oxford, our regular $3.50 and $4 oxfords in all leathers Saturday.....$1.98
